

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

FISCAL YEAR 2025

Report of Civil Rights Complaints, Resolutions, and Actions

Devon Westhill

Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights

Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights

Foreword

The Report of Civil Rights Complaints, Resolutions, and Actions is required under Section 14010 of the Food Conservation and Energy Act of 2008 (2008 Farm Bill). In the 2008 Farm Bill, Congress directs the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) to provide a comprehensive accounting of civil rights complaints, processing, outcomes, and corrective actions so that oversight can be meaningful and transparent in this report.

In recent years, the report drifted away from its statutory purpose. Narrative framing and descriptions of accomplishments often took precedence over the core data that Congress relies upon. While previous officials may have intended to communicate progress, the report did not enable effective oversight. This administration restores the report to its intended function by providing the data as it is, with a concise description of the context and the Department's steps to ensure full compliance with its legal obligations.

Following the change of administration, a comprehensive review of the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights (OASCR) operations revealed major issues regarding its statutory responsibilities. Most importantly, the previous administration directed substantial resources toward non-statutory functions such as Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Accessibility and deprioritized the core operations required by civil rights laws.

This approach compromised the quality of USDA's complaint processing. Prior procedures demanded haste at the expense of quality outcomes, a choice that diminished rigorous analysis. In addition, leadership decisions created redundancies by employing contractors for core functions already fulfilled by other employees. The duplicated work raised costs, inhibited quality investigation and adjudication, and a general lack of processing standards decreased departmental uniformity. Without standardized processes, it was difficult to ensure that all customers and employees were treated equally under the same statutory and regulatory framework.

The review also uncovered a significant lack of data integrity. A data quality audit revealed discrepancies in data migrations from a legacy system which affected case inventory. Records displayed cases as open which had, in reality, been closed years earlier and displayed other cases as completed which lacked full documentation. In some instances, essential case materials were simply missing. These issues decreased the reliability of key performance indicators and obscured the true nature of the complaint inventory.

Current OASCR leadership and staff have worked to resolve these issues and return the priority to our statutory obligations. Agency civil rights leaders have instituted standard operating procedures across offices. Records management personnel have resolved issues throughout data systems. Investigators, advocates, and adjudicators are completing our core work of civil rights complaint processing with greater attention to detail.

OASCR is aligning fully with its statutory obligations by combatting unlawful discrimination in all its forms with streamlined processes and improved rigor. This vision is grounded in transparency and accountability. It reflects a renewed commitment to ensuring every USDA customer and employee is served lawfully and respectfully. The FY 2025 Farm Bill Report reflects that commitment by presenting the data in a straightforward way and by highlighting the work, completed and underway, to bring USDA's civil rights complaint program in alignment with statutory obligations. The Department's direction is clear: a stronger, credible, and more accountable civil rights program that meets the standards Congress set and the public deserves.

1. Program Discrimination Complaints in FY 2025

In FY 2025, USDA's average program processing time for the 1,022 program complaints filed and closed ¹ was 100 days. Additionally, in FY 2025, the average processing time for the 345 accepted and closed program complaints was 173 days ². In FY 2024, OASCR's average program processing time for the 1,606 complaints filed and closed was 93 days and the average processing time for the 494 accepted and closed program complaints was 206 days. ³

Table 1 provides the number of program complaints filed with USDA in FY 2025 and FY 2024.

Table 2 provides the number of program complaints processed by USDA in FY 2025 and FY 2024. The number of complaints pending at the end of the FY is derived by adding the complaints pending at the beginning of the FY to the number of complaints accepted, and subtracting the number of complaints closed during the FY.

¹ The complaints filed but not accepted were closed during the intake process and complainants received a closure letter.

² The average processing time and complaint total data for the Fiscal Year 2025 was obtained from the OASCR Farm Bill Dashboard Report specifically extracted from CRMS on November 1, 2025.

³ Data for Fiscal Year 2024 in this section was obtained from the FY 2024 Farm Bill, while table figures are from the OASCR Farm Bill Dashboard Report specifically extracted from CRMS on November 1, 2025.

⁴ The number of complaints filed will fluctuate due to complaints that were received during the FY but entered into CRMS after the end of the FY.

Final Agency Decisions (FAD) involving findings of discrimination are issued on the record. The final actions may include complaints with a variety of bases and issues.

Table 3 provides the number of findings of discrimination in FY 2025 and FY 2024. There was one finding of discrimination in FY 2025 compared to no findings in FY 2024.

2. Equal Employment Opportunity Discrimination Complaints in FY 2025

The average days to closure for employment complaints in FY 2025 reflects the length of time taken to process each civil rights complaint to closure. This includes closures related to withdrawals, settlements, Final Agency Actions, FAD Without An Administrative Judge (AJ) Decision, Final Agency Orders with an AJ Decision, and FAD Issued.

In FY 2025, the average days for USDA to close cases was 347 days.⁵ This timeframe was reduced by 35 days from 382 in FY 2024 to 347 in FY 2025 and is reflective of the implementation of continuous process improvements.

In FY 2025, USDA investigated Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) complaints in an average of 166 days, within the 180-day regulatory time frame.⁶ In FY 2025, USDA issued FADs without an AJ Decision in an average of 209 days.

Complaints at the hearing stage follow a separate track after completion of the investigatory time period. When a complainant requests a hearing, the case moves to an administrative judge at the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), and the EEOC conducts the proceeding and sets the schedule under 29 C.F.R. § 1614.109. In FY 2025, 186 USDA complaints awaited an EEOC hearing, with an average age of 797 days⁷.

⁵ This data was pulled from the FY 2025 Aggregate Certified Form 462 Report: Part VI Summary of Closures by Category.

⁷ This data was pulled from the FY 2025 Aggregate Certified Form 462 Report: Part VIII Summary of Pending Complaints by Category.

Table 4 provides the number of formal EEO complaints filed with USDA for FY 2025 and FY 2024.

Findings of discrimination may be issued by the agency in a FAD or pursuant to a Final Agency Order issued in accordance with an EEOC AJ decision following an EEOC Administrative Hearing. The final actions resulting in findings of discrimination may include complaints with a variety of bases and issues.

⁹ The ending inventory figure of 365 includes 4 complaints remanded back to OASCR by the EEOC for processing.

¹¹ The USDA Aggregate 462 Report reflects 405 complaints closed. However, the data comprising the 405 complaints closed does not reflect an additional 15 cases that should have been closed in FY 25. Additionally, there was a discrepancy attributed to the consolidation of two cases which resulted in the system counting the secondary case twice.

¹² The USDA Aggregate 462 Report reflects 320 complaints pending at the end of the FY. However, due to a further review of the cases after the 462 Report was certified there are 285 complaints pending at the end of the FY.

¹³ The data reflected for FY 2025 is not consistent with the data reflected on the FY 2025 462 report due to case modifications made after the certification of the FY 2025 462 report.

Table 6 provides the number of employment complaints resulting in findings of discrimination in FY 2025. In FY 2025, there were two findings of discrimination with an EEOC AJ Decision and six findings of discrimination without an EEOC AJ Decision.

Table 7 provides the number of employment complaints in FY 2025 that were resolved by settlement agreement and/or finding of discrimination where personnel actions were taken. In FY 2025, there were 75 ¹⁴ complaints voluntarily resolved by settlement agreement. The total number of personnel actions taken by USDA agencies following the resolution of employment complaints was 21.

Way Forward: Actions Taken and Underway

As outlined above, a number of issues have hindered OASCR's ability to fulfill its statutory civil rights responsibilities. Over the past year, OASCR leadership has reinforced its core foundation by instituting robust procedures and improving the core capacities of its people.

OASCR has made its working systems for complaint review and processing more accountable and more modern. Leadership has eliminated contracts amounting to $2.9 million of spending not aligned with core responsibilities and ended burdensome activities such as reporting requirements and special emphasis programming. A running audit of civil rights standard operating procedures (SOPs) across USDA agencies is creating uniformity and ending inconsistent operations. The audit will, in particular, allow for a more uniform informal counseling process and a single case reporting structure for all divisions. Operations management is also developing a fully electronic reporting system that will enable more efficient and timely resolutions.

Improvements to data tracking systems have also clarified past records and aligned administrators with those handling cases. A Fall 2025 audit of the Entellitrak (ETK) case tracking system revealed widespread errors, missing documentation, and inflated inventories. OASCR corrected case inaccuracies across all agencies. As a result, staff reduced errors on the Open Inventory Report within ETK from 917 cases in September 2025 to 463 as of February 2026, and the appeals inventory from 140 to 78. The numbers continue to decline as cases are reviewed and properly closed. Case managers have updated documentation for cases closed between FY 2023 and FY 2025. To prevent recurrence, OASCR established monthly inventory reviews, created regular coordination meetings with mission areas, and launched standardized user training with quick reference tools. OASCR is also working with the Office of the Chief Information Officer to strengthen the underlying data architecture.

Beyond restructuring its processes, OASCR leadership has begun to equip OASCR personnel to effectively combat unlawful discrimination. OASCR delivered training to staff in legal writing, analysis, research, investigative practice, and FAD drafting as well as additional research tools. At the same time, office leadership has begun enhanced supervisory oversight, including recalibrated timelines and expectations ensuring both quality and speed. Executive level personnel are now using updated review procedures, submitting regular audits of issued decisions, and submitting a competency model to better inform hiring, training, and development. New performance standards for non-executive employees took effect on March 31, 2026. The upcoming reorganization of USDA's civil rights structure will further address organizational issues which contributed to uneven performance.

After implementing a robust improvement strategy at every level of operations, OASCR now enables meaningful congressional oversight and administers a civil rights program that ensures equal treatment for all.
